Thanks go to: Brian Gilbert and the cast of Between Mouthfuls along with Jackie Edwards and all her helpers for providing a fantastic evening in June; All who ventured out on a wet afternoon for the Jubilee Celebration picnic – but at least we were in the dry; and to Jackie Tomkinson the Community Development Officer from Penley for initiating our Light Exercise class and Art Group.

Other Bits and Bobs: We are actively canvassing for another Trustee. IF we don't have trustees the hall cannot function – please step up to help your community; the Hall Working Group will continue to look at how we try to future proof the hall; Volunteers please – yes, we're still looking for HELP! Our list of people willing to help in whatever capacity is growing, but it will never be too big. Interested? Then please give Barbara or Andrea a call. Want to hire the Hall for a PARTY? Check out the website: horsemansgreencommunity.co.uk. In fact have you visited our website recently? You could be amazed at the information on it especially about the history of HG!

Defibrillator Training still tba but we are working on it! The ambulance service is VERY busy.
Fri. Sept 30th BINGO Night

IF you would like to attend any of the above but don't have transport to HG just ring any number shown. Don't be shy, give things a try. You might just enjoy yourself!
